

BREAKING the ICE:

A (Skating) Show of Optimism

In a show filled with champions on the ice, on the court and in life, the inspiring messages of making dreams come true and building bridges are brought to life with unexpected flair and a new spin.

Saturday April 15, 2017 • 4-6pm • Parade Ice Garden • 600 Kenwood Pkwy, Mpls 55403

Reception following • $10/$5 seniors 65+ and under 13 • www.hysfsports.org

Featuring the Mpls North High Polars (on skates!), two Edina synchronized skating teams, and more!

Braemar
Panache

Olympian
Surya
Bonaly

ISI World
Champion
Jane Barrash

MC - Larry
McKenzie
Polars'
Varsity
Coach

Careino
Gurley
2017
True North
Award winner

The Gliding
Girls...

"Sports can save the world"
- Nelson Mandela

We are leveraging the positivity emanating from North, and the power of sports, to engage and connect people.

A Skating Show of Optimism: $10/$5

Reception following

www.hysfsports.org

Click here to register and share via Eventbrite

Questions? info@continuumcenter.net

Our goal is to spotlight optimism and demonstrate in real life/real time that we can create positive new realities when we stretch our thinking in new directions and make efforts for positive connections.

This event is hosted by

Heritage Youth Sports Foundation
Strengthening Lives and Communities through Sports.

With generous support from our collaborators and sponsors, we are also launching the True North Award for outstanding commitment to revitalize and improve the community through sports.

Thank You

NORTH HIGH ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

EST. 1888
A COMMUNITY OF POSSIBILITIES

CONTINUUM CENTER

St Olaf Lutheran Church

JEWISH COMMUNITY
RELATIONS COUNCIL
MINNESOTA & THE DAKOTAS

Braemar Panache

Jones-Harrison
Established 1888